you wonder
where they are
you find a ball

Distract them

- you hide behind
wall of front entrance

- companion calls
to them, leads them through chase

in woods. You wonder how they fare,

- You don't see them

until they later

return when you investigate how

- If Karos, he fights
and kills one, spring off the other, companion

- If Loren, narrowly
escapes their grasp,
hides until they lose
her. Companion

- Resist jumping to conclusions

- Willing to revise beliefs if evidence points away

(Get: $: is chased to 1)

(If: $ is chased is 1)

[Your companion returns, saying what happened
companion approval changes]

↑, he enjoyed it

I don't have to actually listen to anyone

Creative ideas have to be cores that other ideas

hang off.
